

Further, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is entitled to Eleventh Amendment immunity. The Eleventh Amendment of the United States Constitution generally is recognized as a bar to suits in federal courts against a State, its departments and its agencies, unless the State has consented to suit or Congress has overridden the State's immunity. See Regents of the Univ. of Cal. v. Doe, 519 U.S. 425, 429 (1997); Kentucky v. Graham, 473 U.S. 159, 167 n. 14 (1985); Alabama v. Pugh, 438 U.S. 781, 782 (1978) (per curiam); Hudson Sav. Bank v. Austin, 479 F.3d 102, 105-06 (1st Cir. 2007). Here, the Court cannot discern any claim for relief for which the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has waived its immunity or Congress has overridden it.

2. The Clerk shall provide the plaintiff with the form for Consent/Refusal of Magistrate Judge Jurisdiction and the instructions for that form (“consent package”).

3. The Clerk shall issue summons as to Acting Commissioner Colvin and the United States Marshal shall serve a copy of the summons, complaint, consent package, and this Order upon the defendant (with copies to the Attorney General of the United States and the United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts) as directed by plaintiff with all costs of service to be advanced by the United States.

4. Should the plaintiff wish to pursue claims against the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or the Social Security Administration, she must, within thirty-five days, show cause why these defendants should not be dismissed. Failure to do so may result in dismissal of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Social Security Administration as defendants.

SO ORDERED.
